ORDER

AND NOW, this 19th day of May 2020, following analysis of the pro se Plaintiff's amended Complaint (ECF Doc. No. 10) filed under our May 7, 2020 Order (ECF Doc. No. 8), consistent with Congress's mandate in 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii), and for reasons in the accompanying Memorandum, it is ORDERED:

1. Plaintiff may proceed in this case on her Fair Credit Reporting Act claims but not on any other pleaded claims in this case without prejudice to pursue sufficiently plead claims in her first-filed case at No. 20-2276;
2. Plaintiff shall show cause in a Memorandum not exceeding five pages filed on or before May 26, 2020 as to why we should not consolidate this second-filed case into her first-filed case at No. 20-2276 before us; and,
3. The Clerk of Court shall not issue summons in this case until further Order.

KEARNEY, J.
